Constitution and Citizenship Day (September 17th):

Our institution complies with the “Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2005.” The laws states that “each educational institution that receives Federal funds for a fiscal year shall hold an educational program on the United States Constitution of September 17 of such year for the students served the educational institution.” The law requires that Constitution Day be held on September 17 of each year, commemorating the September 17,1787 signing of the Constitution. However, when September 17 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, Constitution Day shall be held during the preceding or following week.

Copyright Infringement & Illegal File Sharing – Policies and Sanctions:

Intellectual properties include copyrights, trademarks, patents, and trade secrets covered by copyright law. Copyright infringement (or copyright violation) is the unauthorized, prohibited use to reproduce ideas or information without any intention of paying for it.

For electronic and audio-visual media, unauthorized reproduction and distribution is also commonly referred to as piracy. Besides, unauthorized downloading of movies, music and software is damaging the economy.

Penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or “statutory” damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For “willful” infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can in its discretion, also assess costs and attorney’s fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505. Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense. For more information, please see the website of the U.S. Copyright Office at (www.copyright.gov).

When students are found guilty of an academic offence, a penalty will be assigned ranging from a warning to a suspension or expulsion from the institution.

Emergency Procedure:

- In the event of a fire, dial 9-1-1 to report the fire
- In a major emergency, such as a wildfire or widespread hazardous materials release, the entire campus may be evacuated and areas closest to the danger area will be evacuated first.
- Stay calm, do not rush or panic
- Safely stop your work
- Gather your personal belongings if it is safe to do so
- Close, but do not lock, your office door and window if it is safe to do so
- Test closed doors for heat and/or fire by touching the door with the back of your hand; do not proceed if hot
- Proceed calmly and safely to the designated Emergency Assembly Area (EAA)
- Follow instructions from emergency responders
- Do not re-enter building until you are instructed to do so
